

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DAY

INNOVATION AMPLIFIED

POWER YOUR POTENTIAL

FEBRUARY 2, 2024

Jacque Hollingshed

Katelyn Proctor

Leveraging Coaching When Working with Subject Matter Experts

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DAY

INNOVATION AMPLIFIED
POWER YOUR POTENTIAL

FEBRUARY 2, 2024

Jacque Hollingshed

Mary Greeley Medical Center

Jacque Hollingshead, MSN, RN, CPTD, NPD-BC, CCRN-K, Learning and Development Manager, is a registered nurse who has dedicated her career to serving others. As a talent development leader, she understands that there is no single approach to working with everyone and strives to leverage coaching as a tool to lead effective teams. Jacque's approach to leadership is centered around empowering her team members to achieve their full potential and providing the necessary support and guidance to help them succeed. Through her leadership, Jacque has been able to create a culture of collaboration and innovation, where team members feel valued and supported. Her dedication to excellence has made her a respected leader in her field, and she continues to inspire others to achieve their own personal and professional goals.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DAY

INNOVATION AMPLIFIED
POWER YOUR POTENTIAL

FEBRUARY 2, 2024

Katelyn Proctor

Mary Greeley Medical Center

Katelyn Proctor, Employee Engagement and Retention Specialist, is a professional with a strong passion for talent development. By understanding the unique challenges and goals of her clients, Katelyn is able to design and deliver learning experiences that are tailored to their specific needs, resulting in meaningful and lasting impact.. Katelyn has a unique approach to learning and development, which involves leveraging coaching to establish relationships with subject matter experts and establish clear learning objectives. Katelyn's passion for talent development comes from her belief that everyone has the potential to grow and succeed.